

TESHIMA GUIDE

English

This is a report from Setouchi Monitor Girls about the site and recommendations where we visited in Teshima.

What is Setouchi Monitor Girls...?

We are a monitor team consisting of the member of The Hyakujushi Bank and prefectural officials of Kagawa. We discover new attraction in Kagawa Prefecture and transmit that information.

Check!

This is a way of laying stones called "Yabanezumi" and this is a traditional technique peculiar to Karato district in Teshima. You can enjoy this beautiful stone walls like art at several places in the island.

Point!

High speed boats from Takamatsu to Teshima. You can enjoy watching the shiny ocean of Seto Inland Sea and the scene that several ships are repeatedly going and coming only by island trip. You can also enjoy thrilling experiences by taking high speed boats. We recommend you to sit chairs outside and look at the scenery.

⑤ Terraced Rice-Field

After Setouchi Triennale in 2010, we started to maintain fallow rice fields around Teshima Museum as a "Terraced Rice-Field project". It is a rare terraced rice-field in Japan, because it is facing the north.

Point!

Onigiri, a rice ball sold at café of Teshima museum is made of rice grown at Terraced Rice-Field. Café staffs sometimes experience farm work.

Check!

Surrounding of the museum, it has beautiful color contrast between blue of sky and sea and green of plants and has many photogenic spots. I recommend you to find your favorite places.

① The site of industrial waste illegal dumping

This is the place where the case of Japan's biggest illegal disposal of industrial wastes happened. You can visit the site where more than 90 tons of industrial wastes were dumped. A guide will tell you the details of the "Teshima case" and history and efforts from now. ※Reservation is required the person in charge: Hamada

Tel : +81-(0)879-68-2661
Except for Mondays, Tuesdays, and holidays from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Check!

Can you guess what this is? These are the real things of industrial wastes illegal dumping. You can see the precious materials at that time in "Teshima kokorono Museum", which is located in the site of industrial wastes illegal dumping.

Teshima is a place with rich nature. You can see crabs at several places when you walk around the island. You can get a chance to feel closer to nature.

Check!

② Ieura Hachiman shrine

It is one of the two Hachiman shrines in Teshima. Otorii made of Teshima stones was built in Muromachi period, it remains the time teshima was under control of Kofukuji temple. It is Kagawa's oldest stone torii and it was selected as cultural properties designated by Kagawa prefecture.

③ Umi no restaurant

You can enjoy your meal at terrace seat where you can feel like in a deck in the ship. We provide Japanese food which fully use ingredients such as fresh seafood of Setouchi and Sanuki olive beef, rice and vegetables grown at Teshima and lemon. You can also enjoy alcohol and tea as well as meals.

525-1 Ieura Teshima Tonosho-cho Shozu-gun Kagawa
A 15 minute walk from Ieura Port

Teshima, whose name literally means "Rich island" Not only appreciating art works, but also communicating with nature and residents is the highlight of the trip in this island.

At Teshima museum, whether you can stay a whole day or you cannot even stand a hour depends on who you are with...LOL I recommend you to go there alone, too!

④ Teshima Art Museum

It took about 6 years from making an idea to completion and opened in 2010. This is a rare museum in the world, because there is only one work. According to a survey conducted by Nikkei, it was selected the most beautiful museum in Japan. ※Implemented a reservation system (online ticket) Please check a website for more information

607 karato, Teshima, Tonosho-cho, Shozu-gun, Kagawa

Point!

Seto Inland Sea spread out before our eyes, so you can feel like we are having meals on the sea and you can also savor the feelings of the resort. The sound of the waves and the sea breeze, and meals with dashi will make luxury time.
